Charlotte Heights STATE FAIR

This Quarter in Kidspiration, we have learned lessons from all the characters working on the Charlotte Heights State Fair. We studied stories about Samuel, King Saul, King David, and King Solomon and learned a lot about having the right ATTITUDE!

Mr. Marshall was the Grand Marshal for the State Fair and he was helped by his assistant Beatrice Carnie. Ace Chance was the games master and always had a fun game for the kids to play. Nacho Nixon manned the snack stand and always had great snacks. Lacey and Lucy lived in the neighborhood and visited each week to check on the progress of the fair...and learn a lesson from the Bible along the way. Sad Sally the clown, Fernando the Great, and Hugh G. Speculator made guest appearances as members of the State Fair staff.

Our Memory Verse was, Psalms 37:4 – “Take delight in the Lord and He will give you the desires of your heart.” We learned that having a good attitude can always help you follow God’s plan. King Saul did not always have the best attitude when dealing with David. But, David had a great attitude when he defeated Goliath!
