Go and Do Likewise

By Eric Owens

Luke 10:30-37 (NKJV)

30 Then Jesus answered and said: "A certain man went down from Jerusalem to Jericho, and fell among thieves, who stripped him of his clothing, wounded him, and departed, leaving him half dead. 31 Now by chance a certain priest came down that road. And when he saw him, he passed by on the other side. 32 Likewise a Levite, when he arrived at the place, came and looked, and passed by on the other side. 33 But a certain Samaritan, as he journeyed, came where he was. And when he saw him, he had compassion. 34 So he went to him and bandaged his wounds, pouring on oil and wine; and he set him on his own animal, brought him to an inn, and took care of him. 35 On the next day, when he departed, he took out two denarii, gave them to the innkeeper, and said to him, 'Take care of him; and whatever more you spend, when I come again, I will repay you.' 36 So which of these three do you think was neighbor to him who fell among the thieves?" 37 And he said, "He who showed mercy on him." Then Jesus said to him, "Go and do likewise."

Applying the Gospel – An Open Door

I believe we are here today as a country because of God and the sacrifice of those serving in our military. Many lives have been lost for the sake of freedom. Other lives have been damaged due to the ongoing fight for freedom here and abroad. I can only imagine what it's like to serve in the military and adjust back into civilian life. We are blessed to have several Christian veterans. They can do more than imagine because they lived it.

One of our veterans, Eric Owens, feels called to reach out to other veterans with the message of Christ. He wants to start a veteran's class and reach out to other veterans as a place of refuge and support for them. I see this as an Open Door. When a member feels strongly about wanting to help others, that is a great thing. I think it's even special considering our veterans. The greatest impact we can have in the lives of others is not hosting special events. It's the daily, weekly, or monthly connection that makes a real difference.

As a church, we are called to do good as we have an opportunity (Galatians 6:10); to bear one another's burdens (Galatians 6:1-2); to let our light shine (Matthew 5:13-16). I believe Eric has given us a door to open, and may God bless our efforts as we try to serve those who have served us.

In Him,
Josh Barnett

P – Participating

As we continue to explore our IMPACT Statement, this week we look at Participating.

Christianity is NOT a spectator sport. We cannot sit on the sidelines while we watch to see what is going on. The disciples who followed Jesus were called throughout His ministry to practice their faith. Whether it was Peter stepping out on the water or something as simple as Andrew bringing a boy with two fish and five loaves to Jesus, His disciples were active.

We all are gifted differently, and you may be saying “I don't want to lead from up front”, or “I don't want to teach a class”, and while we certainly need all the help we can get, you don't have to do these things to Participate. We want you to Participate in worship by singing out, by studying along with the lesson, by praying together as a congregation. We want you to Participate by coming to events, by seeing what is going on in other areas of the church, by welcoming visitors, and by inviting others to church.

When Jesus ascended into Heaven, He gave his apostles His great commission to go into all the world and preach the Gospel. In the book of Acts, God's people are starting His church, a church that we are a part of today. We need you to Participate in the work God is doing here at Charlotte Heights.

46 So, continuing daily with one accord in the temple, and breaking bread from house to house, they ate their food with gladness and simplicity of heart, 47 praising God and having favor with all the people. And the Lord added to the church daily those who were being saved. (Acts 2:46-47)
