Recipe to Remember

First Ingredient: Determination

By Josh Barnett

Ruth 1:16-18 (NKJV)

16 But Ruth said:

“Entreat me not to leave you, Or to turn back from following after you; For wherever you go, I will go; And wherever you lodge, I will lodge; Your people shall be my people, And your God, my God.

17 Where you die, I will die, And there will I be buried. The Lord do so to me, and more also, If anything but death parts you and me.”

18 When she saw that she was determined to go with her, she stopped speaking to her.

Recipe to Remember

I've been at Charlotte Heights long enough to know that we have some amazing cooks. I was really impressed at Homecoming with the long tables full of food. We had everything you could think of. It was all so good. I'm thankful for those who are good at cooking and using recipes. I stink at it. I can toast bread, pour cereal into a bowl, and grill meat. I've looked through some of the recipe books at our house, and it seems like learning a new language.

I love the story of Ruth. It's buried in the Old Testament, and it teaches great lessons on love, perseverance, and redemption. It's more than a story about a woman leaving her family to go with her mother-in-law. Ruth is mentioned in the genealogy of Jesus. "Salmon begot Boaz by Rahab, Boaz begot Obed by Ruth, Obed begot Jesse" (Matthew 1:5). She is a part of the ancestry of Jesus. I want us to think of the Book of Ruth like a Recipe Book. The ingredients are not perishable items like milk or eggs. The ingredients in the Book of Ruth are things like Determination, Consideration, Reputation, and Redemption. I hope you will be a part of this new series on the Book of Ruth. The book gives us a Recipe to Remember and go by.

In Him,
Josh Barnett

Meet Our Members with Josh & Kory

The updates from the visits made in February are now on the bulletin board in the hallway. You can also see them each week on our Facebook page.

Good Morning Charlotte Heights!

This week in Kidspiration, Marla and Darla will welcome Phillip Overflow from Phillip's Filling Station! Phillip will remind everyone what it means to be "Filled Up" with the Spirit. Everything will focus on Noah and his ability to focus on the building of the Ark.

The lesson this week will remind us to "Ignore People Around You to _____ God."

Don't forget to study our Memory Verse!

"I know You can do everything. You make plans, and nothing can change or stop them."

-- Job 42:2 (ERV)

Our IMPACT Corner focus for this week is the Ladies Ministry which covers many areas such as the annual Ladies Day program, weekly bible class that meets Wednesday mornings at 10:00 a.m., and ladies bible classes on Sunday morning and Wednesday evenings.

Thanks to Sandy Hime for teaching the Wednesday morning bible study which many of the ladies say is the highlight of their week. They greatly enjoy the time of fellowship and learning. They do many other things that make an IMPACT, such as supporting Disaster Relief, New Heights Community Center, and other charities.

They visit those in nursing homes and those who are otherwise unable to get out. We are also very thankful and appreciative for Sandi Rinderer who is teaching Ladies bible study on Sunday morning. The next Ladies Day event is coming up in April, and many hours have been spent by a large number of women in planning and preparing for this. Take some time to thank all these ladies and get involved in 2019.

We had a great time at CYC listening to great speakers and spending time singing songs of praise.

A huge THANK YOU to the chaperones who helped with this trip, Emilie Crow, Rachel Bartlett, Janet Barnett, Steve Bishop, and Mark Collins. Check this week's insert for more details. Retreats are a great opportunity to CONNECT with others and with God. That reminds me, please sign up for the Congregational Retreat March 29-31.

I am truly blessed to be able to serve these young people here and most importantly serve God.

Please get to know the youth of this congregation and see what a wonderful group they are.
