Fishing With Peter

By Josh Barnett

Luke 5:1-11 (NKJV)

5 So it was, as the multitude pressed about Him to hear the word of God, that He stood by the Lake of Gennesaret, 2 and saw two boats standing by the lake; but the fishermen had gone from them and were washing their nets. 3 Then He got into one of the boats, which was Simon's, and asked him to put out a little from the land. And He sat down and taught the multitudes from the boat.

4 When He had stopped speaking, He said to Simon, "Launch out into the deep and let down your nets for a catch."

5 But Simon answered and said to Him, "Master, we have toiled all night and caught nothing; nevertheless at Your word I will let down the net." 6 And when they had done this, they caught a great number of fish, and their net was breaking. 7 So they signaled to their partners in the other boat to come and help them. And they came and filled both the boats, so that they began to sink. 8 When Simon Peter saw it, he fell down at Jesus' knees, saying, "Depart from me, for I am a sinful man, O Lord!"

9 For he and all who were with him were astonished at the catch of fish which they had taken; 10 and so also were James and John, the sons of Zebedee, who were partners with Simon. And Jesus said to Simon, "Do not be afraid. From now on you will catch men." 11 So when they had brought their boats to land, they forsook all and followed Him.

Fishing with Peter

I have good memories fishing with my father. He would take me in his truck, and we would drive to a creek. We had two poles, a minnow bucket, and a fish string. We used the minnow bucket to hold the crawdads we caught from the creek. It was a challenge to catch the biggest crawdad hiding underneath the perfect rock. We would spend fifteen minutes or so looking for the fishing bait. We would sometimes wade upstream and other times downstream. We eyed the right fishing spot to cast our reels with the bait. Sometimes it was a success. Other times, we left with nothing.

I learned some valuable lessons fishing with my father. I learned that every time we went out to fish, we caught something more important than fish. We caught time together. I learned that walking downstream is much easier than walking upstream. It's hard to fight against the current, and so it is with life.

The Bible provides a well-known fisherman, Peter. He has some fishing stories to tell. He had the time when the nets were so full that it required two boats to bring them in to shore. He caught a fish with a piece of money in its mouth. In all these fishing stories, Jesus was right there. Peter was fishing for fish. Jesus was fishing for Peter. We will spend our time going fishing with Peter. What we catch will not be fish but lessons.

Join us as we cast our thoughts to Peter and reel in the lessons.

In Him,
Josh Barnett

Kidspiration Children's Ministry The Music Man

It is HOT in Drearyville, and everyone is trying to stay cool. Mayor Monotone won't stay out in the heat, but the citizens of Drearyville need some help from Mel O. Dee to look at things a different way. Mel will teach the citizens a new song and how to Count Your Blessings.

Hopefully, Vice Mayor Chick won't catch the people singing and turn them in to Mayor Monotone!!

Memory Verse

Oh come, let us sing to the Lord; let us make a joyful noise to the Rock of our Salvation!
