Reeling In Restoration

By Josh Barnett

John 21:3-10 (NKJV)

3 Simon Peter said to them, "I am going fishing." They said to him, "We are going with you also." They went out and immediately got into the boat, and that night they caught nothing. 4 But when the morning had now come, Jesus stood on the shore; yet the disciples did not know that it was Jesus. 5 Then Jesus said to them, "Children, have you any food?" They answered Him, "No."

6 And He said to them, "Cast the net on the right side of the boat, and you will find some." So they cast, and now they were not able to draw it in because of the multitude of fish.

7 Therefore that disciple whom Jesus loved said to Peter, "It is the Lord!" Now when Simon Peter heard that it was the Lord, he put on his outer garment (for he had removed it), and plunged into the sea. 8 But the other disciples came in the little boat (for they were not far from land, but about two hundred cubits), dragging the net with fish. 9 Then, as soon as they had come to land, they saw a fire of coals there, and fish laid on it, and bread. 10 Jesus said to them, "Bring some of the fish which you have just caught."

Restore

A lot happened in the upper room the night Jesus was betrayed and arrested. Jesus instituted His Supper. He informed the Apostles that one of them would betray them. He mentioned that He was leaving. He predicted Peter's denial. In Luke's account, Jesus said, "But I have prayed for you, that your faith should not fail; and when you have returned to Me, strengthen the brethren" (Luke 22:32). Peter quickly says, "Lord, I am ready to go with You, both to prison and to death" (Luke 22:33). What did the Lord mean by "returned to Me"? The devil had asked for Peter. Jesus didn't ask that Peter could be spared from trouble. The undergoing of difficulty, failure, setback, and hardship are all important steps to becoming stronger believers.

Jesus had the assurance that Peter would retrace his steps back to Jesus.

We know Peter's shortcomings. We easily can bring up when he fell in the water and in life by denying Jesus.

What about Peter being restored? In the 21st chapter of John, we have a beautiful scene of restoration.

Peter didn't choose to leave in disgrace over what he had done. He made the effort to return to the Lord.

Restoration is necessary for us all. We like to think that sin won't happen to us. However, we know that means the truth is not us (I John 1:8). I'm thankful for the Lord's prayer prior to the events in John 21. He had prayed for Peter. What a touching action by our Lord! He cares for us, especially when we have fallen away from Him. Remember that there is nothing greater than the power of the cross. We must be willing to return to Him. May we be prayerful, as the Lord, when it comes to each other's souls. May we be welcoming to those who have strayed away.

In Him,
Josh Barnett
