Won't It Be Wonderful There

By Josh Barnett

Revelation 21:1-6 (NKJV)

1 Now I saw a new heaven and a new earth, for the first heaven and the first earth had passed away. Also there was no more sea. 2 Then I, John, saw the holy city, New Jerusalem, coming down out of heaven from God, prepared as a bride adorned for her husband. 3 And I heard a loud voice from heaven saying, "Behold, the tabernacle of God is with men, and He will dwell with them, and they shall be His people. God Himself will be with them and be their God. 4 And God will wipe away every tear from their eyes; there shall be no more death, nor sorrow, nor crying. There shall be no more pain, for the former things have passed away." 5 Then He who sat on the throne said, "Behold, I make all things new." And He said to me, "Write, for these words are true and faithful." 6 And He said to me, "It is done! I am the Alpha and the Omega, the Beginning and the End. I will give of the fountain of the water of life freely to him who thirsts."

Won't It Be Wonderful There

What is the direction to get to your house? I guess it depends where we are. It's one way from the church building. It's another way from Dickson. It's another way from Rivergate. There may be multiple ways from one place because you can go by interstate or side roads only. I had a Hindu woman tell me that the way to God is like the many ways to Nashville. Each religion has its way to get to God. Every analogy or metaphor to support a religious idea is not right. I can use a metaphor to support anything, but that metaphor doesn't make it right. Yes, there are many ways to get to Nashville from different directions. There is one way to God.

That way is through Jesus Christ. (John 14:6) The way to God is much different than the way to an earthly city.

Where will Heaven be? I've read from some in the church that Heaven will be on earth. They cite the "new Heaven and new earth" verse in Revelation. They say the earth will be renewed by fire like the world was by water with the flood. The new earth is taken literally. James Rowe, who wrote the hymn "Won't It Be Wonderful There", didn't think Heaven was going to be here. His hymn teaches "There", as in somewhere else. I strongly believe that the Bible teaches that Heaven is somewhere else. I believe the greatest argument as to where Heaven is located is when Jesus tells His disciples that He is leaving them in the upper room. "In My Father's house are many mansions, if it were not so, I would have told you. I go to prepare a place for you. And if I go and prepare a place for you, I will come again and receive you to Myself; that where I am, there you may be also." (John 14:2-3) That wasn't here. Jesus left the earth to prepare a place elsewhere. He didn't stay here to prepare a place here. We need to always be ready to give a defense regarding anything, especially our final resting place, Heaven. Won't it be wonderful there?

In Him,

Josh Barnett

KIDSPIRATION

Children's Ministry

Time Tunnel Caverns

Last week, with the help of the kids, Fred & Barney, placed the correct pieces of the ancient stone tablet in place, and the Time Tunnel in Time Tunnel Caverns opened.

We learned that Noah built the Ark, and God destroyed everyone except Noah's family with a great flood. Afterwards, God put a rainbow in the sky.

The mysterious man appeared again and gave us the next piece of the tablet. But, he took another one of the tourists back in the Time Tunnel with him. We have to complete the tablet in order to get them back.

Here is a picture of this week's tablet piece.

Do you know any stories in the Book of Genesis about a Tower?

Memory Verse

For whatever things were written before were written for our learning, that we through the patience and comfort of the Scriptures might have hope.
