By Josh Barnett

1 Peter 5:8-11 (NKJV)

8 Be sober, be vigilant; because your adversary the devil walks about like a roaring lion, seeking whom he may devour. 9 Resist him, steadfast in the faith, knowing that the same sufferings are experienced by your brotherhood in the world. 10 But may the God of all grace, who called us to His eternal glory by Christ Jesus, after you have suffered a while, perfect, establish, strengthen, and settle you. 11 To Him be the glory and the dominion forever and ever. Amen.

Reflections of Evangelism – The Works of Satan

C.S. Lewis wrote a book called The Screwtape Letters, which was about the cleverness of Satan’s agents. The book is a series of letters from the senior demon, Screwtape. He is writing to a younger tempter named Wormwood. This fictional work offers bits of truth about the enemy. In letter VII, Screwtape writes, “I do not think you will have much difficulty in keeping the patient in the dark. The fact that ‘devils’ are predominately comic figures in the modern imagination will help you.” (Page 37)

Our modern culture has watered down the devil as a funny character in a red suit with a pitchfork. If we make light of something, we fail to see the danger and threat. The apostle Paul didn’t see the devil as something funny or insignificant. He warned us about the “wiles of the devil” (Ephesians 6:11). He spoke of the “rulers of the darkness of this age” and “spiritual hosts of wickedness”. (Ephesians 6:12)

Do we think the devil is sitting and doing nothing? He is at work. This world and its influences are an example of what he is capable of doing. When it comes to evangelism, we must be aware of the opposition to how we are living. He is the enemy of the church. He is a threat to the fruits of evangelism. He doesn’t want us to grow and win souls. He wants us to fail and do nothing about it. He wants a dead church. I cannot leave Reflections of Evangelism without talking about our greatest danger. The devil is at work. He is determined to slow and stop evangelism. How does Satan work? What tricks is he capable of doing? Let us consider the works of Satan.

In Him,
Josh Barnett
