True Beauty

By Josh Barnett

1 Peter 3:3-4 (NKJV)

3 Do not let your adornment be merely outward—arranging the hair, wearing gold, or putting on fine apparel— 4 rather let it be the hidden person of the heart, with the incorruptible beauty of a gentle and quiet spirit, which is very precious in the sight of God.

The Work of the Church Continues

On this unusual Mother's Day, Charlotte Heights would like to honor all the Mothers in our congregation. We have tried to delivery a single rose to each of our mothers this week.

There were some of you who we were not able to contact because of visitor restrictions where you live.

We have you in our thoughts and prayers on this day.

We may have also missed some of you when we came to deliver. Please let us know if you have not received a rose by Sunday morning.

*"...a woman who fears the Lord, she shall be praised."
-- Proverbs 31:30*

We wish all our mothers a Happy Mother's Day!

HAPPY

The Value of a Ruby

I came across these quotes about mothers.

- “To the world you are a mother, but to a family you are the world.”*
- “Behind all your stories is always your mother’s story, because hers is where yours begins.”*
- “Life doesn’t come with a manual. It comes with a mother.”*
- “There’s no way to be the perfect mother and a million ways to be a good one.”*
- “A mother’s hug lasts long after she lets go.”*

A lot has been said about a mother. The Bible describes the worth of a virtuous wife and mother as being far above rubies. (Proverb 31:10) A mother’s value is far above gems, precious stones, and metals. A mother’s value cannot be weighed on a scale to determine its worth. A mother’s worth is priceless to the members of her family. Yet, Mother’s Day is filled with mixed emotions. Many are so thankful to have their mother still with them. Several have had to say goodbye to their mother from this life. A few grew up not knowing their mother but having someone else to be a mother.

This Mother’s Day looks different. It is not filled with children and grandchildren sitting with their mother in a Sunday service. There is no going out to eat to honor mom. Instead, it may be moments on the phone or on a video call. It may be standing outside the house and talking from a safe distance. It may be embracing your mother and showing how much you love her. Whatever it looks like for each of us, let us take the time to honor the beauty of a godly mother. We will be reminded from God’s Word that such a person is far more valuable than rubies. We love all our mothers at Charlotte Heights. Thank you for your godly example to your family and to us. May the rose be a token of our gratitude for you.

In Him,
Josh Barnett

Answers to Last Week’s Riddles

(4 people answered BOTH riddles correctly and notified the church office.)

Riddle 1 – Who Am I?

Answer: Ishbosheth
 (See 2 Samuel 2:8-10; 3:13-16; 4:1-8)

Riddle 2 – What Are We?

Answer: Parables
 (See Judges 9:1-21; 2 Samuel 12:1-12; Ezekiel 17:2-10; Matthew 13:33-36)

This Week’s Riddles

Riddle 1 – Who Am I?

Matthew mentions five of us
 In Jesus’ family tree.
 Four of us are named by name.
 The other isn’t me.

 I lived long before the Gospels.
 There are no books that have my name.
 That eliminates three of us.
 Only two of us remain.

 My story has a scarlet thread.
 But here’s another twist.
 It wasn’t hung outside a wall.
 It was tied to someone’s wrist.

Answer: _____

Riddle 2 – What Am I?

There was only one of me.
 I’m unique, in effect.
 I’m often called by a common name,
 But that is not correct.

 I was prepared for a special task
 And a special situation.
 You might think I’m unusual
 As a mode of transportation.

 I’ve been compared to the tomb
 Where Jesus’ body lay.
 There was once a prayer in me
 Though I could never pray.

Answer: _____

Clothing Room
