New Series, But First

I cannot bring myself to write the new series for the month of August. I want to write about our Drive-Thru V.B.S. I'm so amazed in the variety of people coming together for a safe but fun V.B.S. I believe this V.B.S. was needed for a lot of groups. It was needed for our church family to get involved and do something. It seems our hands have grown stiff, not being able to do anything together collectively outside of worship and bible class. It was nice to see old and young working together to captivate families as they drove by to hear Bible stories. I believe the V.B.S. was needed for families. Our young people have gone through a trying time at such an early age. They are in an uncertain time like all of us. I cannot imagine being their age and having to watch services online with no class. Our families needed a V.B.S. to come and look forward to. I believe the V.B.S. was needed for our neighborhood and community. It was a visible sign that said, "We are here and still working." I think it was good for the community to hear and see how creative we were with following safety measures and meeting the needs of families. I noticed several cars going by our building slowly, curious about what was happening. I cannot thank one person because there were many. I cannot give credit to a person because the glory belongs to God. The overall purpose in being in costume and sweating up a storm in late July was to plant the seed. It was a great visual to point to our Lord and Savior Jesus Christ.

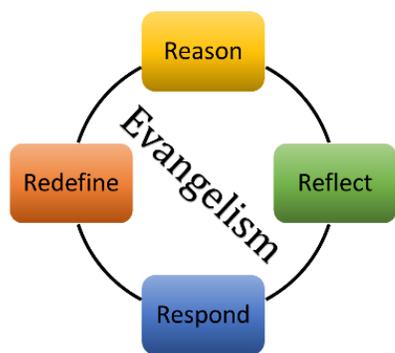

Thank you, church family, for your willingness to work together and give credit where credit is due.

Sermon Series for August – Responding to Evangelism

Do you remember what I preached about in January, February, and mostly in March? There is a banner about it hanging in the auditorium. It's the 2020 Vision. I realize 2020 hasn't been the best year for most people. However, it doesn't mean all is lost. Remember, God is able to take what we go through and work it together for the good. We have witnessed seven souls baptized into Christ. We have seen evangelism at work in the year 2020. We finish this series with the fourth and final word "Respond". We are going to look at "Responding to Evangelism". Regardless of the year, situation, and circumstances, we need to always let our light shine before others. Be light and salt.

In Him,

Josh Barnett
