TODAY'S LESSON

Seasons of Change:

From Being Stuck To Pressing On

By Josh Barnett

Ecclesiastes 3:1-8 (NKJV)

- 1 To everything there is a season, A time for every purpose under heaven:
- 2 A time to be born, And a time to die; A time to plant, And a time to pluck what is planted;
- 3 A time to kill, And a time to heal; A time to break down, And a time to build up;
- 4 A time to weep, And a time to laugh; A time to mourn, And a time to dance;
- 5 A time to cast away stones, And a time to gather stones; A time to embrace, And a time to refrain from embracing;
- 6 A time to gain, And a time to lose; A time to keep, And a time to throw away;
- 7 A time to tear, And a time to sew; A time to keep silence, And a time to speak;
- 8 A time to love, And a time to hate; A time of war, And a time of peace.

Seasons of Change: From Being Stuck To Pressing On

The song “Turn! Turn! Turn! (To Everything There Is A Season)” was written in the 1950’s by Pete Seeger. He was mad at his publisher, so he turned to the Bible and wrote this song in 15 minutes based on Ecclesiastes chapter 3. The song became popular by the guitar folk rock band The Byrds. The song resonated with a lot of listeners during several changes throughout the sixties decade.

The teacher of Ecclesiastes wasn’t thinking about turning his words into a hit song in the 1960’s. He was reflecting on the many seasons we go through in this life. There are 14 lines that contain favorable and unfavorable activities under the sun. I believe the older we get, the more we can relate to the wise teacher’s words in Ecclesiastes 3. Our lives can feel like a string of seasons. It seems random days connected by the calendar, or the lack of it in 2020. I looked at our church calendar the other day for 2020, and there is nothing but an “X” from mid-March to the end of summer. There are some seasons that fly by but others that seem to drag on forever. It feels like this season of 2020 seems to be longer than most. I had a teenager tell me that she is tired of wearing masks. I said, “I thought you liked wearing a mask in the beginning”. “That was then”, she said.

Yes, the newness of adjusting for the year has worn off for most.

Do you feel stuck? Is this feeling based on you or the circumstances that surround you? How do we keep pressing on when it doesn’t seem everyone around us is doing the same? These are all good questions and things we may be asking ourselves. Let us consider the change that God wants us to make, change that matters, the Change From Being Stuck To Pressing On.

In Him,

Josh Barnett

Thank You

I would like to thank my brothers & sisters in Christ for all that sent cards of sympathy, visited the family of my sister, Thelma Forrest, at the funeral home, and showed kindness.

In Christian Love,
Carolyn LeMay

Thank You

Dear Church Family,

Thank you for the many cards, calls, and visits I have received during my time away from church. I still can’t walk or use my left hand, but I know it will come with time. Keep prayers coming my way.

Love,
Becky Malone

Sympathy

Sympathy is extended to Beverly Bennett in the death of her mother, Joyce Hunter, last week. Services were conducted last Saturday in Lawrenceburg.
