TODAY'S LESSON

Great Gifts: The Gift of Family

By Josh Barnett

Matthew 1:1-2; 16-17 (NKJV)

1 The book of the genealogy of Jesus Christ, the Son of David, the Son of Abraham:
2 Abraham begot Isaac, Isaac begot Jacob, and Jacob begot Judah and his brothers.

16 And Jacob begot Joseph the husband of Mary, of whom was born Jesus who is called Christ.

17 So all the generations from Abraham to David are fourteen generations, from David until the captivity in Babylon are fourteen generations, and from the captivity in Babylon until the Christ are fourteen generations.

Great Gifts – The Gift of Family

How can we go through the holiday season and not think about family? I think back to the time when I was a child and experienced the joys of Christmas with my siblings and parents. We had the tradition of going to a movie and out to eat. Afterwards, we opened a Christmas present under the tree and watched Dr. Seuss' "How the Grinch Stole Christmas!" We hurried to bed because my parents gave the soft threat, "Santa, will not come if children are up!" Those are great memories.

I'm sure you have precious memories growing up as a child during the holiday season. I know there are some who don't have precious memories with their family. Instead, they have terrible memories because family wasn't a safe haven for them. I wish every home was a safe home. I wish every family was like what God designed it to be. I know this is not the case. We hear every holiday season of homes and families in need. This year, it seems to be more evident because of the many effects of the pandemic. I'm thinking of a former student that I had in my class last year who lost his father suddenly in the Fall season of this year. What will this first Christmas be like for him? What will it be like for many of our members who had to bury their loved ones this year? Yes, family can be our greatest blessing and also our greatest burden. It can bring us the greatest joy and the greatest sorrow. It can bring out the best in us and the worst as well. I still believe, no matter the good or the bad, families are a gift from God.

I'm thankful for the family of Jesus. We see in His family tree that some had a sinful past. In His family tree, there was one who was a prostitute for a time. Another was the wife of another man. In Jesus' family tree, all people, regardless of their background, sit down as equals. They are all equal when it comes to sin and being accepted and loved by God. What a gift!

Your family doesn't need to be perfect. God wants us all to come to Him no matter what we have done or who we are. This is the greatest gift this season and all other seasons. We have the opportunity to be a part of the greatest family, the family of God. That's a gift that is given because of Jesus.

In Him,
Josh Barnett
