TODAY'S LESSON

Finding What We Need Under the Son
Finding Trust In the Son

By Josh Barnett

Ecclesiastes 11:3-5 (NKJV)

3 If the clouds are full of rain,
They empty themselves upon the earth;

And if a tree falls to the south or the north,
In the place where the tree falls, there it shall lie.

4 He who observes the wind will not sow,
And he who regards the clouds will not reap.

5 As you do not know what is the way of the wind,
Or how the bones grow in the womb of her who is with child,
So you do not know the works of God who makes everything.

Finding What We Need Under the Son - Finding Trust In The Son

Do you find it difficult to trust in someone or something? We commonly hear from political candidates, "I am someone you can trust!" We hear from advertisers that we can trust in their products. Many have put their trust in someone only to feel betrayed or deceived. It is difficult for us to completely put our trust in this world.

The Teacher of Ecclesiastes felt no different with trusting in the things in this life. He gave examples on how it's nearly impossible to trust in nature or ourselves. He looked at weather and how powerless we are to stop or control it. Our beautiful state of Tennessee reminds us of this constantly. One week we have ice & snow, and the next week it's in the 70's. What about trusting in myself? He argues against that because our own powers and abilities are limited. We cannot control everything that happens to us.

What about with God? Does anyone possess the knowledge and wisdom to know everything that God does and how He does it? No wise person knows the activities of God. We read this in the book of Job. He was unable to answer God. The conclusion is simple but difficult.

If we cannot control nature or ourselves completely, we need to lean and trust in the One Who can. The only One Who can is God.

I believe we struggle with "trusting in God" because of what is evident to us in this life. We constantly hear and see distrust around us. Who can I believe? Who can I trust? The answer has always been near us. It's up to us to lean on God completely and fully by trusting in Him. May we be wise enough to learn to trust in God.

In Him,

Josh Barnett

KIDSPARATION

Children's Ministry

This week we will begin a new quarter in Kidspiration.

Our theme will be, "The Great Bible Baking Show!"

It will be a baking competition unlike any you have seen on TV (or maybe JUST LIKE one you have seen).

Paul Jerusalem & Sherry Berry will host the show & connect

Sherry Berry

Paul Jerusalem

their baking challenges to a different Bible lesson each week. We will learn stories of Saul, David, and Solomon while creating delicious pastries and cakes. This week, we will meet our three contestants, Ruby, Martha, and Richard, and they will bring samples to demonstrate their baking abilities. Since it is their first "bake" in the competition, we will learn about the first King of Israel.

In both cases, we may learn that outward appearances don't always lead to great results!

Our memory verse for the quarter is Colossians 3:17.

"And whatever you do, whether in word or deed, do it all in the name of the Lord Jesus, giving thanks to God the Father through him."

IMPACT Corner: It's Been 1 Year! – Let's Review...

That's right! It's been 1 Year since Charlotte Heights first stopped holding our in-person services due to Covid-19.

Our 2020 Friends & Family Day had been scheduled for Sunday, March 15, 2020, and the Elders made a last-minute cancellation of the luncheon that was to be held that day. Then, because of the news of the pandemic, our attendance dropped that Sunday morning from an average of 228 to only 137. The next week, March 22, 2020, (1 Year Ago) the Elders made the decision to temporarily suspend in-person services. So, what kind of Impact has the pandemic had on our congregation?

Below are some highlights of the ongoing changes and adjustments that have been made due to the pandemic.
