TODAY'S LESSON

The Hard Way:

The Hard Way is the Right Way
By Josh Barnett

Matthew 7:13-14 (NKJV)

13 "Enter by the narrow gate; for wide is the gate and broad is the way that leads to destruction, and there are many who go in by it. 14 Because narrow is the gate and difficult is the way which leads to life, and there are few who find it."

Congregational Meeting

Thanks to everyone who attended the Congregational Meeting last Sunday.

We had 54 people in attendance.

If you have any suggestions, ideas, or questions, you may submit them to any of the Elders, the church office, or the Deacon who is in charge of a particular area.

A list of the Elders & Deacons and their assigned areas of work is in this week's Bulletin and is on the Bulletin Board.

If you would like a DVD of the meeting, please contact the church office.

The Hard Way Series: “The Hard Way is the Right Way”

I love asking children what they want to be as an adult. They usually give big dreams and ideas, like a professional football player or professional basketball player. Sometimes they say a doctor or a rich celebrity. A child’s mind goes big to what they think would be the greatest thing to become. They are unaware of the difficult road of hard work, practice, experience, setbacks, and discipline to have such a job. The “easy way” goes for the minimum and takes shortcuts. It’s the quickest way to achieve dreams with little to no work. What is the solution to entitlement?

“For the gate is narrow and the way is hard that leads to life, and those who find it are few.” (Matthew 7:14, ESV) The hard way is the best way because of its destination. It doesn’t come right away. It involves patience, endurance, and the will to fight daily temptations. There are no shortcuts to faithfulness to God and His Word. There were no shortcuts for God. He didn’t avoid a difficult situation. There was nothing entitled or easy about the way Jesus died for us. He was innocent but still gave His life up for our sakes.

Jesus made the harder way easier because of the gift of salvation. Which way are you going? How are you getting there? Remember the hard way is the right way.

In Him,
Josh Barnett

Intern’s Insights

Dealing With Chaos

Life can be chaotic at times. Things don’t always go according to plan, and sometimes we just don’t know what to do. That’s okay.

These moments show us that we need to lean on God and to trust in Him.

Do not be anxious about anything, but in everything by prayer and supplication with thanksgiving let your requests be made known to God. And the peace of God, which surpasses all understanding, will guard your hearts and your minds in Christ Jesus.

-- Philippians 4:6-7 (ESV)

Monday Night For The Master

We had 15 people who attended our Monday Night for the Master this month. Some of the stations are still set up in the hallway.

1. Sign the cards on the table. (These will be mailed on Monday.)
2. Send a card to our Sick & Shut-Ins. (Labels & supplies are on the table.)
3. Send a card to those recently baptized. (Labels & supplies are on the table.)
4. Sign up to bring items for our Homeless Bags. (Sign-up Sheet is on the table.)

KIDSPARATION

Children's Ministry

Join us again this week for another exciting encounter with the Bumble family as they try to finalize their vacation plans!

Our memory verse is Jeremiah 29:11.

"For I know the plans I have for you," declares the Lord, "plans to prosper you and not to harm you, plans to give you hope and a future." (NIV)

Going-Away Party – Austin Pierce Ice Cream Sundae Bar - August 11

Austin Pierce will be ending his internship at Charlotte Heights on Thursday, August 12th.

Join us for a Going-Away Ice Cream Sundae Bar Party to honor Austin on Wednesday, August 11th, after services.

Please keep Austin in your prayers along with his family members, who are currently serving God in Fiji.
