TODAY'S LESSON

Hope In A Hopeless World:
Hope In The Midst Of The Storm
By Josh Barnett

Mark 4:35-41 (NKJV)

35 On the same day, when evening had come, He said to them, "Let us cross over to the other side." 36 Now when they had left the multitude, they took Him along in the boat as He was. And other little boats were also with Him. 37 And a great windstorm arose, and the waves beat into the boat, so that it was already filling. 38 But He was in the stern, asleep on a pillow. And they awoke Him and said to Him, "Teacher, do You not care that we are perishing?" 39 Then He arose and rebuked the wind, and said to the sea, "Peace, be still!" And the wind ceased and there was a great calm. 40 But He said to them, "Why are you so fearful? How is it that you have no faith?" 41 And they feared exceedingly, and said to one another, "Who can this be, that even the wind and the sea obey Him!"

Hope In A Hopeless World

Might. That can be a haunting word. Our greatest fear or concern is in "Might". We fear the threat of what might happen. What if we don't make our monthly bills this month? What if something happens suddenly to someone I love? What if COVID never goes away? What if our "normal" before the shut-in will never be again? Our fear can be wrapped up, not in the reality, but in the imagination. I know you can relate to the nighttime tossing and turning because your mind is running away from you. We live in a world that is often a scary place. It seems that the time we are in is scary. When we fear what might happen and we retreat, where will we put our hope?

"This hope we have as an anchor of the soul, both sure and steadfast, and which enters the Presence behind the veil" (Hebrews 6:19). This hope is in two immutable things. First of all, it is impossible for God to lie. Second, we have strong comfort to lay hold of the hope set before us. This biblical hope is not wishful thinking. It is not luck or chance. It is the rock-solid belief in the character of God. We can face the reality of whatever life brings to us because we have the comfort of God and the hope because of Him. We can walk forward with hope into an unknown future because we have placed our lives in the power, goodness, and faithfulness of God. Might? It is the reality of today and the promise of tomorrow.

It is the hope we need in a hopeless world.

In Him,
Josh Barnett

You may also contact the church office if you have any questions or issues setting up your account.

Grandpa loves to tell Bible stories.

The only problem is that Grandpa is constantly forgetting something, and when he leaves the room Disney Plus comes alive! Who knew that Disney characters loved the Bible, too? Come join us this week to see who will show up, when we study the story of

Daniel and the Lion's Den.

2 And do not be conformed to this world, but be transformed by the renewing of your mind, that you may prove what is that good and acceptable and perfect will of God.

Monday Night for the Master

Our Monday Night for the Master program will meet this week at 6:00.

You may join us to participate in person, or you may come by and pick up your materials to take home.

Lads-To-Leaders

Our Lads-To-Leaders program will restart this week! If you are participating, the class will start at 5:00 tonight in the Classroom CR-8.

See Kory or Rachel for more information.

College Students – Goodie Boxes

We will be collecting items to send to our 13 college students until October 10th.

We want to encourage them with notes, cards, snacks, & goodies.

They will be mailed that week.

Tennessee Children's Home

Today is the last day to bring items for the Tennessee Children's Home Fall Food & Supply Drive. Their truck will be here to pick-up the items on Tuesday.

Please bring only the specific non-perishable items that are listed. Place your items on the table in the hallway.

They are also asking families to consider making a $20 donation to be used towards purchases of perishable foods.

Please make checks payable to Charlotte Heights.

We will continue to take monetary donations through This Morning.

Tennessee Children's Home has four campuses, all of them providing safe harbor, treatment, and a Christian environment for displaced families and youth.

Trunk-or-Treat

Saturday, October 30th (5:00)

Everyone is invited to come, decorate your vehicle, and participate in our annual Trunk-or-Treat.

Invite your family & friends to come and enjoy the fun.

Because of the high number of COVID cases, we will only have our Trunk-or-Treat.

We will not have our annual chili supper or a movie.
