Enough Is Enough

After our Trunk-Or-Treat in the gym, we went to Cracker Barrel for dinner. I want to thank the Sauls family for hosting a great event for the kids despite the weather. I walked into the restaurant and was greeted with a white and green Christmas tree. I wanted a chainsaw so bad at that moment to cut it down. I'm kidding. There was one little, tiny table of Thanksgiving decorations. The rest of the store was decked out for Christmas. Enough is enough! We need Thanksgiving to be where it is at on our calendar. We need something to remind us that what we have is more than enough and to be thankful for it. We need to count the blessings we have in God. We need to be satisfied because of Him.

I want us to consider the word "enough". Why do we struggle with it when it comes to money, stuff, and things? How do you know when you have enough? What has God said about having enough? "Now godliness with contentment is great gain. For we brought nothing into this world, and it is certain we can carry nothing out." (1 Timothy 6:6-7). Let us be more open to the lessons on contentment and learn what it means to have enough. May our definition match God's. Enough is enough!

In Him,
Josh Barnett

Veteran's Recognition Day - Today

Please remain in the auditorium after our morning services as we take a few minutes before class to recognize, honor, and thank our veterans.

Thank You

Dear Fellow Saints,

As always, we are praying for you and trust that each of you remain in good health. We are doing OK, able to manage the health issues that Barbara faces, at least to a degree.

Thank you, so much, for your most generous donation in the amount of $1,250.00 to the Lord's work at World Mission Radio. The Lord continues to bless our efforts as there were close to fifty conversions last month, and your prayers and financial support helped to make this possible. Without good Christian friends, such as you, we would not be able to continue in the work in which we are involved.

Again, thank you, and our prayer is that you and yours will continue to prosper both in health and in spirit.

Yours because of Calvary,
James E. Jones

Franklin D. Roosevelt – D-Day Prayer

This is the prayer originally entitled "Let Our Hearts Be Stout" written by President Franklin D. Roosevelt as Allied troops were invading German-occupied Europe during World War II. The prayer was read to the Nation on radio on the evening of D-Day, June 6, 1944, while American, British, and Canadian troops were fighting to establish five beach heads on the coast of Normandy in northern France.

The day before, the President had also been on the radio to announce that Allied troops had entered Rome. The spectacular news that Rome had been liberated was quickly superseded by news of the gigantic D-Day invasion which began at 6:30 a.m. on June 6th. By midnight, about 57,000 American and 75,000 British & Canadian soldiers had made it ashore, amid losses of 2,500 killed and 8,500 wounded.

My Fellow Americans:

Last night, when I spoke with you about the fall of Rome, I knew at that moment that troops of the United States and our Allies were crossing the Channel in another and greater operation. It has come to pass with success thus far. And so, in this poignant hour, I ask you to join with me in prayer.

Almighty God:

Our sons, pride of our nation, this day have set upon a mighty endeavor, a struggle to preserve our Republic, our religion, and our civilization, and to set free a suffering humanity.

Lead them straight and true; give strength to their arms, stoutness to their hearts, steadfastness in their faith.

They will need Thy blessings. Their road will be long and hard. For the enemy is strong. He may hurl back our forces. Success may not come with rushing speed, but we shall return again and again; and we know that by Thy grace, and by the righteousness of our cause, our sons will triumph.

They will be sore tried, by night and by day, without rest -- until the victory is won. The darkness will be rent by noise and flame. Men's souls will be shaken with the violences of war.

For these men are lately drawn from the ways of peace. They fight not for the lust of conquest. They fight to end conquest. They fight to liberate. They fight to let justice arise, and tolerance and goodwill among all Thy people. They yearn but for the end of battle, for their return to the haven of home.

Some will never return. Embrace these, Father, and receive them, Thy heroic servants, into Thy kingdom.

And for us at home -- fathers, mothers, children, wives, sisters, and brothers of brave men overseas, whose thoughts and prayers are ever with them -- help us, Almighty God, to rededicate ourselves in renewed faith in Thee in this hour of great sacrifice.

Many people have urged that I call the nation into a single day of special prayer. But because the road is long and the desire is great, I ask that our people devote themselves in a continuance of prayer. As we rise to each new day, and again when each day is spent, let words of prayer be on our lips, invoking Thy help to our efforts.

Give us strength, too -- strength in our daily tasks, to redouble the contributions we make in the physical and the material support of our armed forces.

And let our hearts be stout, to wait out the long travail, to bear sorrows that may come, to impart our courage unto our sons wheresoever they may be.

And, O Lord, give us faith. Give us faith in Thee; faith in our sons; faith in each other; faith in our united crusade. Let not the keenness of our spirit ever be dulled. Let not the impacts of temporary events, of temporal matters of but fleeting moment -- let not these deter us in our unconquerable purpose.

With Thy blessing, we shall prevail over the unholy forces of our enemy. Help us to conquer the apostles of greed and racial arrogances. Lead us to the saving of our country, and with our sister nations into a world unity that will spell a sure peace -- a peace invulnerable to the schemings of unworthy men.

And a peace that will let all of men live in freedom, reaping the just rewards of their honest toil.

Thy will be done, Almighty God. Amen.
