Enough Is Greater Gain: More Than Enough

Have you ever thought, “I could’ve been born in Haiti or rural China?” We could have been born in the poorest country with no support from family or understanding of God. However, we were not born in an impoverished country with no hope of survival. We were born in a land of opportunity and wealth. We are blessed to have been born in godly families or led to the family of God. We are used to having more than food, clothing, and shelter in our lives.

I remember when I was younger that going out to eat was a big deal. “Hey, kids, who wants to go to McDonald’s?” Today, it is not a big deal to eat out, especially at McDonald’s. We have been blessed with more than enough.

Jesus prayed, “Give us this day our daily bread.” (Matthew 6:11) Paul spoke of being content with food and clothing. (1 Timothy 6:8) Why do I have more than enough? Is it wrong to have more than what Jesus prayed and Paul wrote about?

Why has God blessed us with so much? I believe it is our responsibility to be good stewards. The problem is not having more but how we respond with more. Let us consider the two main choices we have when we have been blessed with more than enough.

In Him,
Josh Barnett
