TODAY'S LESSON

Authority in Matters of Religion

By James Jones

Matthew 7:28-29 (NKJV)

28 And so it was, when Jesus had ended these sayings, that the people were astonished at His teaching, 29 for He taught them as one having authority, and not as the scribes.

My Reason

I will not be with you this morning. I'm looking for another place. Ha! I'm kidding. I was curious to see if you are really reading this article. We are at Goodlettsville Church of Christ this first Sunday in 2022. Why? It's for a special reason that involves you.

My precious father-in-law had a challenging year in 2021. He contracted COVID, and he struggled with his oxygen. He spent a total of 55 days in Skyline Medical Center. For several days we didn't know which way his circumstances would go. We added him to our Prayer List. Many of you prayed for him. I cannot "Thank You" enough for that. We strongly believe in the power of prayer, regardless of the outcome or answer. God spared him and restored him.

Before he got sick, the Elders at Goodlettsville asked him if he would be willing to serve as an Elder. This is the same congregation where he had preached and retired. What a tremendous compliment to his faith! He was asked again by the Elders when he was feeling better. He accepted, and his name was presented to the church. He will be appointed as an Elder of their congregation today.

Our entire family knew we needed to be there. He went from being hospitalized in 2021 to serve as an Elder beginning in 2022.

What a tremendous God we serve! What power there is in prayer and in the medical community! The Bible tells us "that people always ought to pray and not lose heart." (Luke 18:1). What will 2022 bring? I don't know. I do know that we are to be prayerful and not lose heart. May God continue to bless us all in the New Year! God bless!

In Him,
Josh Barnett

Responses

Karen Jones and Shelby Lovelace responded to the invitation last Sunday. They each asked for the prayers of the congregation.

Please keep Karen and Shelby in your prayers.

Sympathy

Sympathy is extended to the family and friends of Lisa Kay Hill, who passed away on Wednesday. Lisa has been in a Nursing Facility and on our Prayer List for many years.

Graveside services will be conducted on Tuesday at 11:00 at Harpeth Hills Funeral Home on Hwy 100.

Please keep Lisa's family and friends in your prayers.

Sympathy

Sympathy is extended to the family of Barbara Cagle, who passed away on Thursday.

Visitation will be on Tuesday from 12:30 to 2:30 at Harpeth Hills Funeral Home on Hwy 100.

Services will be conducted at 2:30. The Burial will follow.

Please keep Carol and his family in your prayers.

COVID-19 Continues to Affect Us

Every time we think the pandemic is beginning to subside, it raises its head again. Last week, we learned that multiple church families had been affected by the virus. There is no indication that it was spread through contact at the building.

Each time this happens, the Elders must prayerfully make hard decisions to ensure that our congregation is safe and following the best practices.

Based on the latest information, our Elders made the following decisions last week.

1. Today's Sunday Morning service is virtual only. Only those who are participating in leading the service are asked to come. You may participate virtually in the following ways.
 - View the service LIVE on the CH Facebook Page.
 - Listen to the service LIVE by using the call-in number on Page 1.
 - View the service beginning Sunday afternoon on the CH YouTube Channel.
2. Sunday School is cancelled.
3. Tonight's service is cancelled.
4. Monday Night for the Master is cancelled.
5. We will return to normal services next Wednesday, 01/05/2022.

The Elders will continue to monitor the information that they have available to make future decisions. These decisions are not always easy, and many factors must be considered. If you have any thoughts or information that needs to be considered, please contact any of the Elders.

Please keep our Elders in your prayers as they make these decisions.

Woody's Wonderful World of Wood is a carpentry shop where you can learn about tools, woodworking, & carpentry.

Last week, Woody had to repair a hole in the workbench.

A customer visited the carpentry shop and asked for a treasure box for a gift. Woody was able to build the box in just a short amount of time, but there were a few problems. Woody blamed them on that pesky woodchuck, but his sons think he just can't admit when he makes a mistake.

We also learned that the Wise Men visited Jesus when He was a child and brought Him gifts of gold, frankincense, and myrrh.

We will pick up with another story next week.

And watch out for that pesky woodchuck! You never know where he might show up. As a matter of fact, he's hiding somewhere in this Bulletin. Can you find him?

Kidspiration Club will resume on January 12, 2022.

ZOOM TRAINING

Sunday, January 9, 2022
3:00 p.m., Activity Room

Would you like to participate in virtual book studies & Bible classes but you're not sure how? Then this short training is for you! This training is open to anyone, men & women, who want to learn how to use zoom and also any woman who plans to join the upcoming Ladies Virtual Book Study but have questions.

If possible, please bring the device you plan to use for Zoom. (laptop, tablet, iPad, or smartphone)

Year in Review

Each year, we publish a Year In Review insert in the first Bulletin of the New Year. This insert lists our new members & baptisms, births, and members who passed during the previous year. Since we are not meeting in person this week, this insert will be included in next week's Bulletin.

One-Call Notifications

This is a reminder that Charlotte Heights uses an online system called One Call Now to convey information to our members and others in a timely manner. This includes notifications of deaths, births, special prayer requests, information about services & other events, and other announcements. We also use it to send the Church Bulletin to members on Friday morning by Email. You may choose to be notified by Email, Text, and/or Phone Call.

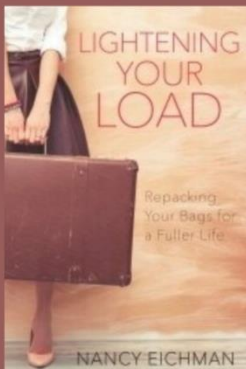

If you have not signed up to receive these notifications and you would like to be included as we begin the new year, please contact the church office.
