TODAY'S LESSON

Let Out:

Furtherance Of The Gospel
By Josh Barnett

Philippians 1:12-18 (NKJV)

12 But I want you to know, brethren, that the things which happened to me have actually turned out for the furtherance of the gospel, 13 so that it has become evident to the whole palace guard, and to all the rest, that my chains are in Christ; 14 and most of the brethren in the Lord, having become confident by my chains, are much more bold to speak the word without fear.

15 Some indeed preach Christ even from envy and strife, and some also from goodwill: 16 The former preach Christ from selfish ambition, not sincerely, supposing to add affliction to my chains; 17 but the latter out of love, knowing that I am appointed for the defense of the gospel. 18 What then? Only that in every way, whether in pretense or in truth, Christ is preached; and in this I rejoice, yes, and will rejoice.

He is joining us today.

He will give us an update on this

Until He Comes - Let Out: Furtherance Of The Gospel

What we show at work and home matters. What we post on social media and in a text matters.

What we show in prosperity and adversity matters. Our conduct carries tremendous weight with others and more importantly, with God.

What are your motives when it comes to life aside from your time with the church?

Paul understood the importance of our conduct in all things. He demonstrated it while in prison. He could have played the “woe is me” card for his life. He wanted the church to know that his circumstances turned out something better. “But I want you to know, brethren, that the things which happened to me have actually turned out for the furtherance of the gospel (Philippians 1:12).”

Can you really say that whatever happens to you that the most important thing is God and His will? What we “let out” is so important. I believe what we show in adversity can be stronger than what we show in prosperity. Some of the greatest statements of faith are not in a pulpit but in a hospital bed, funeral home, or on the front row pew at the church building. The ups and downs of your life are not for the advantages of your life. They are for the “furtherance of the gospel”.

It begins with God. It continues with God. It ends with God.

We need to be instruments of God when it comes to furthering the gospel.

In Him,

Josh Barnett

Thank you for the Christmas cards and for the cards when my niece and my sister passed away. Thanks for all you have done. I love my church. I watch online when I am not able to attend. I hope to be back soon.

God Bless & Thank You,
May Gibson

Thank You

Thank you all so very much for your thoughts and prayers in this time of great sorrow for our family in the death of our brother. I am truly blessed to have found such a wonderful, caring, loving church family! Your continued prayers are so very comforting.

Fran Welborn

Thank You

I want to thank each of you that sent me a card during the Holiday Season. They were very much appreciated and uplifting as they came in at a low time in my life. This is the first time in over sixty years that my beloved Loretta was not by my side. I have not driven since her death and my eye surgeries thereafter, but I am with you on Facebook every Sunday. It is just not the same as in person.

Again, Thanks!
Robert Dishner

Thank You

We appreciate all of the prayers, calls, and cards that we have received.
