TODAY'S LESSON

Let Out: Hard Pressed

By Josh Barnett

Philippians 1:19-26 (NKJV)

19 For I know that this will turn out for my deliverance through your prayer and the supply of the Spirit of Jesus Christ, 20 according to my earnest expectation and hope that in nothing I shall be ashamed, but with all boldness, as always, so now also Christ will be magnified in my body, whether by life or by death. 21 For to me, to live is Christ, and to die is gain. 22 But if I live on in the flesh, this will mean fruit from my labor; yet what I shall choose I cannot tell. 23 For I am hard-pressed between the two, having a desire to depart and be with Christ, which is far better. 24 Nevertheless to remain in the flesh is more needful for you. 25 And being confident of this, I know that I shall remain and continue with you all for your progress and joy of faith, 26 that your rejoicing for me may be more abundant in Jesus Christ by my coming to you again.

Until He Comes: LET OUT – “Hard Pressed”

Are you hard-pressed? Have you been hard-pressed? Did you feel like you were in a jam? You were caught between a rock and a hard place. You were faced with a dilemma. Maybe your “hard-pressed” situation was with health. You had to make a difficult decision for yourself or a family member - a decision with no easy choice. Do I choose option A or option B?

Maybe you were hard-pressed with a job. You were faced with a tremendous task that was weighing you down.

Do you press on with it or not?

We are all faced with difficult dilemmas in life. I wish I could say that if you live your life a certain way it would exclude all dilemmas. Jesus was “hard-pressed” while in the Garden of Gethsemane. The apostle Paul was “hard-pressed” while in prison. He was transparent with the church by sharing his dilemma. “For I am hard-pressed between the two, having a desire to depart and be with Christ, which is far better. Nevertheless to remain in the flesh is more needful for you.”

(Philippians 1:23-24)

What do we “let out” from a hard-pressed situation? What can we learn from Paul’s dilemma? We need to always be mindful of our conduct in Christ. Whether we are in a dilemma or not, we need to let out conduct worthy of the gospel.

In Him,
Josh Barnett

KIDSPIRATION

Children's Ministry

Woody's Wonderful World of Wood is a carpentry shop where you can learn about tools, woodworking, & carpentry.

Last week, Junior and Chuck implemented a new Online Ordering System so that customers could place custom orders. The announcement over the intercom about the Online Orders caused Woody to remember the story of Jesus' Baptism when God spoke from Heaven.

Unfortunately, after Junior and Chuck left the room, that pesky woodchuck interrupted the Online Ordering System and left a message of his own for Woody.

This week we will learn about the Temptation of Jesus.

Fun Facts About the Bible

The Bible is full of Important Facts. But there are also a lot of FUN FACTS about the Bible, itself!

Here are a few FUN FACTS that might interest you.

The English word "Bible" is derived from the Greek "biblios". Biblios originally meant "the books" or "scroll".

The original Bible books were written in 1 of 3 languages. The OT was written in Hebrew and some Aramaic. The NT was written in Greek.

The Bible contains 66 Books. There are 39 OT and 27 NT written by roughly 40 authors.

The Bible contains 1189 Chapters. The Chapter divisions that we have today were added in 1205 AD by a Roman Catholic Cardinal named Stephen Langton.

The Longest & Shortest Chapters are both found in Psalms. Psalm 117 is the shortest. Psalm 119 is the longest.

The King James Bible contains 31,102 Verses. The number of Verses varies, depending on the translation. The division into verses was added in 1551 AD by a printer named Robert Stephanus.

The Shortest Verse in the English Bible is John 11:35. "Jesus wept" contains 2 words and 9 letters. However, in the original Greek, this verse contains 16 letters. So, in the Greek, the shortest verse is 1 Thessalonians 5:16. "Rejoice Always" contains only 14 letters in Greek.

The Last Word in the Bible is "Amen" (Revelation 22:21). This word means "so it is", "so be it", or "may it be fulfilled".

The Bible is the most stolen book. Bibles are often taken from churches, hospitals, hotels, etc. Hopefully, those who steal the Bibles will read Exodus 20:15.
