TODAY'S LESSON

Let In: A Mind for Others

By Josh Barnett

Philippians 2:1-4 (NKJV)

1 Therefore if there is any consolation in Christ, if any comfort of love, if any fellowship of the Spirit, if any affection and mercy, 2 fulfill my joy by being like-minded, having the same love, being of one accord, of one mind. 3 Let nothing be done through selfish ambition or conceit, but in lowliness of mind let each esteem others better than himself. 4 Let each of you look out not only for his own interests, but also for the interests of others.

Until He Comes: Let In – A Mind For Others

How many thoughts do you have daily? I've read that the "average number" of thoughts per day is around 70,000. I have no idea how they came up with that number. I know we entertain a lot of thoughts each day.

The Bible says, "For as he thinks in his heart so is he" (Proverbs 23:7). Our daily thoughts are a powerful force. We can think "I can't", and it is so. We can think "I'm worthless" and believe it to be so. God created our minds, and He knows our potential. It comes down to what we put into our minds. I can focus on negative things, and my mindset is negative. I can think selfishly, and my focus is only on myself.

Philippians Chapter 2 helps us to focus inwardly. The key verse is verse five. "Let this mind be in you which was also in Christ Jesus." We need to possess the attitude of mind of Christ Jesus. If we don't have the mind of Christ, we cannot follow Christ. One of the things Jesus teaches us is to think of others. He came to this world because of others. He lived, learned, and died for others. He modeled what it means to do for others.

We cannot be someone's Savior, but we can be Christlike in words and actions.

What does it mean to have a mind for others?

Let us consider this together this Lord's Day.

In Him,

Josh Barnett

KIDSPIRATION

Children's Ministry

Woody's Wonderful World of Wood is a carpentry shop where you can learn about tools, woodworking, & carpentry.

Last week, Junior and Chuck took an Online Order for some wooden building blocks. The customer wanted them for his son and asked that they be stacked up high on a table when he arrived so that his son could see them.

Everyone kept quiet as the last blocks were stacked in place so that they did not fall. Woody was tempted to knock them over, but he didn't.

We also talked about the Temptation of Jesus.

Believe it or not, that pesky woodchuck swung in on a rope and knocked the blocks over when everyone but Woody was out of the room. Guess who is going to get blamed for that.

This week we will learn about Nicodemus and His Visit with Jesus.

Watch out for that pesky woodchuck. He's getting very brave!

Josh's Friendly Tip #1

What is the purpose of this day? We want it to be an opportunity for you to invite a neighbor, friend, or coworker to come and visit us that day.

My "Friendly Tip Number 1" is: "No" Is Okay.

It is okay to be told no. We try to avoid it as much as possible.

We take it too personally. If you invite someone, it's okay if the person says "No".

God is told "No" every day by people.

"No" is okay.
