TODAY'S LESSON

Let Go Of Past Actions

By Josh Barnett

Philippians 3:12-16 (NKJV)

12 Not that I have already attained, or am already perfected; but I press on, that I may lay hold of that for which Christ Jesus has also laid hold of me. 13 Brethren, I do not count myself to have apprehended; but one thing I do, forgetting those things which are behind and reaching forward to those things which are ahead, 14 I press toward the goal for the prize of the upward call of God in Christ Jesus. 15 Therefore let us, as many as are mature, have this mind; and if in anything you think otherwise, God will reveal even this to you. 16 Nevertheless, to the degree that we have already attained, let us walk by the same rule, let us be of the same mind.

BIBLE RESEARCH QUESTION

Last Week's Question & Answer

What happened to the veil in the Temple when Jesus died?

It was torn in two from top to bottom.

(Matthew 27:51, Mark 15:38, Luke 23:45)

Those Who Answered

Mildred Stokes, Patricia Carden, Paulette Baldwin, Beth Wilson, Richard Potts, Ronnie Hirsbrunner, Terry Grissim, David Mayo

(In order of receipt)

This Week's Question

How many of each clean animal did Noah take on the ark?

Be careful.

This question might not be as easy as it looks.

Until He Comes: Let Go - Let Go Of Past Actions

I wish it was as simple as throwing a piece of paper away or snapping your fingers. We struggle to let go of past actions. I know someone who can remember like it was yesterday something that happened to him 50 plus years ago. If we write down our past actions on a piece of paper and throw it away, we still remember our past actions.

We struggle with our past actions. The two most difficult things to let go of are being successful and sorrowful actions. How can success be a problem? It can make us too content with no intentions of doing more. Paul's past actions were both successful and sorrowful. He was more Jewish than his counterparts. He excelled beyond his contemporaries in studies of Judaism. (Galatians 1:14) On the other end, Paul referred to his past actions as a "chief of sinners". (I Timothy 1:15)

How was he able to let go of his past actions?

What can we learn from Paul when it comes to our own pasts? We need to remove anything and everything that is keeping us away from the Lord. We need to forget those things behind us and reach forward to what is ahead. We need to let go.

In Him,

Josh Barnett

Thank You

I want to thank each and every one for their care, prayers, cards, and letters. All of it is much appreciated. I hope to be back with all of you soon. You all are a special group of people and do so much good work for the Lord.

Thank you again,

Barbara Joan Buchanan

Thank You

Dear Fellow Saints,
Barbara and I are truly grateful for the prayers, cards, and thoughts of concern for Barbara at this time of illness. Please continue to remember us in your prayers.

Yours because of Calvary,

James & Barbara Jones

Thank You

As mentioned earlier, Marty Warrick has to temporarily move his possessions out of his apartment while it is renovated. Thanks to everyone who has helped with packing and moving Marty's belongings. Your work is much appreciated.

Davis Webb

Thank You

Thank you all so much for the cards, prayers, and kindness shown during the passing of my sister, Annie Bell. I appreciate it so much.

SYMPATHY

Sympathy is extended to Mark Collins and his family in the death of his cousin,

Kathy Witt Kiker, on Tuesday.

Kathy was a former member of West Nashville Heights and the sister of Harold & Scarlett Witt.

Arrangements are incomplete at this time.

Please keep this family in your prayers.

Austin Pierce - Update

Austin Pierce served as our Summer Youth Intern last summer.

We received the following update from Austin last week.

I wanted to let you all know that I have withdrawn from school.

I joined the Air Force and will be going to Basic Training on April 12, 2022.

Austin has asked us to keep him in our prayers. He will keep us updated on his progress.

KIDSPIRATION

Children's Ministry

Woody's Wonderful World of Wood is a carpentry shop where you can learn about tools, woodworking, & carpentry.

Last week, the woodshop had been completely destroyed. Junior and Chuck blamed some children who had taken a tour of the woodshop. They wanted to put up a sign saying that children were no longer allowed in the woodshop.

This reminded Woody of the story in the Bible of Jesus & the Little Children.

Woody explained to them that it was those pesky woodchucks who had done the dastardly deed, but they refused to believe him.

After Junior & Chuck left, Woody decided to see if he could make friends with the woodchucks. It turns out that the woodchucks wanted to be friends, too. They just wanted to get Woody's attention so that they could help him in the woodshop. Join us this week for the finale as we learn the story of Jesus and the Rich Young Ruler.

Will Woody and the woodchucks get the woodshop back in shape and fill all of the orders that had been received?

Will they save the woodshop from going under?

Will Junior & Chuck ever believe the woodchucks exist?

How much wood could a woodchuck chuck if a woodchuck could chuck wood?

All of these questions will be answered this week! Don't miss it!

KIDSPIRATION CLUB

Kidspiration Club did not meet last week because of Spring Break. It will resume this week on Wednesday night. We will have 5 more Club nights before the Spring session comes to an end on April 27.

The Clubbers have been doing great with their attendance and their memory work!

Clubbers who earn 50 Points or more will be invited to participate in a Reward Outing in May. Parents will be given details soon.

Tennessee Children's Home

Tennessee Children's Home is one of the mission points that Charlotte Heights supports throughout the year.

They are having their Spring Food and Supply Drive.

Flyers are located on the table in the hallway.

Please bring only the specific non-perishable items that are listed. Place your items on the table in the hallway.

They are also asking families to consider making a $20 donation to be used towards purchases of perishable foods.

You may give these donations to the church office.

Their truck will be here to pick-up the items on April 5th.
