TODAY'S LESSON

Let Known:

Realizing The Secret To Contentment
By Josh Barnett

Philippians 4:10-13 (NKJV)

10 But I rejoiced in the Lord greatly that now at last your care for me has flourished again; though you surely did care, but you lacked opportunity.
11 Not that I speak in regard to need, for I have learned in whatever state I am, to be content:
12 I know how to be abased, and I know how to abound. Everywhere and in all things I have learned both to be full and to be hungry, both to abound and to suffer need.
13 I can do all things through Christ who strengthens me.

Until He Comes: Let Known - Realizing the Secret to Contentment

We are finally here. Our series “Until He Comes” will conclude today with “contentment” and “giving”. The book of Philippians is rich with instruction for us as we eagerly await the coming of our Lord Jesus Christ. Remember to “Let Out”, “Let In”, “Let Go”, and “Let Known”. Let us conclude with the “Secret to Contentment”.

Do you feel content? Does contentment best describe you? Contentment means “the state of happiness and satisfaction”. We live in the greatest country on the planet and at one of the greatest times in history. We have modern conveniences when it comes to shelter, clothing, and transportation. We live in a city close to some of the best medical doctors in the country. The result of all of this is that we are the happiest and most satisfied generation ever. I’m afraid that is not true because many people are unsatisfied.

If you think having “more” is the secret to contentment, you are fooling yourself. “If I only had more money...” “If I only had more time...” These statements will not lead us to be content. How do I know? The apostle Paul lets us know what it means to be content. This was something he had learned. “Not that I speak in regard to need, for I have learned in whatever state I am, to be content” (Philippians 4:11).

Thank you for being with us here today.

Let us consider the secret of being content with Paul.

In Him,

Josh Barnett

Thank You

Dear Friends at Charlotte Heights,

Each Spring and Fall we send out a request for help to fill the pantries at our four Tennessee Children’s Home Campuses. Thank you for your loyal support. The children in care have basic needs and your caring behind the gift is truly a blessing. Your contribution of food and supplies to the Food and Supply Drive will provide healthy meals to the children in our care. We need more people like you to help make a difference.

Sincerely,

Glenn Richardson
