Today, we honor our Mothers. Some are here with us today, some are not able to attend, and some have passed. Take time today to thank God for your mother and honor her.

If you are a mother, we have a small token of appreciation for you today. Be sure that you receive one of the Chocolate Candy Bars in your honor.

Just a sweet token of appreciation to all of the mothers at Charlotte Heights. We appreciate you and all you do!

Family Time: Time to Honor Mothers

Happy Mother's Day! I want our precious mothers at Charlotte Heights to know how valuable you are to your family and to the church. It is an honor to work at a church that has mothers from various generations. We have brand new mothers, mothers who are "grand", and mothers who are "great" and "grand". We have mothers in name and work only because of their great reward. I understand Mother's Day is filled with different emotions. Some are blessed to share this day with their mother. Others don't have a mother with whom to spend the day. A few mothers never had the chance to be a mom for long because of complications with childbearing or other situations. Some mothers have had to bury a child before the child could bury them. Whatever this day means to you, I pray the comfort of God's Word and His people can be a source of peace to you.

We are discussing our monthly series of "Family Time". Today I want to take the time to "Honor Mothers". I've been blessed with many mothers in my life. I have a biological mother. I have a mother-in-law. I also have other mothers. These are the people who loved and treated me like a mother. The apostle Paul had mothers in his life. In Romans 16, Paul mentioned several people by name who were instrumental in his life. "Greet Rufus, chosen in the Lord, and his mother and mine" (Romans 16:13). Paul was blessed with special people in his life. Let us take the time to honor the mothers in our lives.

In Him,
Josh Barnett
