TODAY'S LESSON

Understanding Our Worship

By Josh Barnett

John 4:21-24 (NKJV)

21 Jesus said to her, “Woman, believe Me, the hour is coming when you will neither on this mountain, nor in Jerusalem, worship the Father. 22 You worship what you do not know; we know what we worship, for salvation is of the Jews. 23 But the hour is coming, and now is, when the true worshipers will worship the Father in spirit and truth; for the Father is seeking such to worship Him. 24 God is Spirit, and those who worship Him must worship in spirit and truth.”

Back To Worship

I've read articles on the decline of church attendance post-COVID. Several think the decrease in attendance was before COVID, and it is more cultural than medical. The problem of lower church attendance is not because we lack people in our communities and city. Our city is multiplying. Why do we have empty pews? The decline in attendance is not just a problem with Charlotte Heights. Many local congregations are dealing with this. It comes down to what we believe and how we view church attendance. Why do you attend worship? Do you think it's okay to miss worship? Is worship something we have to do? What does it mean to be a true worshiper of God? I believe these are essential questions to ask as we look at our new series, Back To Worship.

I appreciate each one of you. I'm also thankful for the technology to stream our services for those traveling and unable to attend in person. I realize streaming is a great tool to reach out to visitors.

What is the answer? I believe the answer is in God's word. Of all people, Jesus told a Samaritan woman of the type of worship that the Father is seeking. "God is Spirit, and those who worship Him must worship in spirit and truth." (John 4:24) One of the most significant statements by our Lord is on the topic of worship. We need to understand the context surrounding it to understand better what it means to "worship God". We need to go Back to Worship.

In Him,
Josh Barnett

KIDSPIRATION

Children's Ministry

F.B.I. – Faithful Bible Investigators

Special Agent Ace Liberty and his team have come to a crossroads. They have been investigating the Scripture Snatching case for their suspicious helper, Edmondo Worthaton. Perhaps this week, it could be revealed that there is another criminal working behind the scenes to destroy Worthaton's reputation. In the midst of this investigation, the team will investigate the Parable of the Sheep and the Goats and learn that those who are evil will eventually be separated from those who are good, just like the team needs to separate the criminals from the innocent.
