TODAY'S LESSON

A Father's Words

By Josh Barnett

Joshua 24:14-16 (NKJV)

14 "Now therefore, fear the Lord, serve Him in sincerity and in truth, and put away the gods which your fathers served on the other side of the River and in Egypt. Serve the Lord! 15 And if it seems evil to you to serve the Lord, choose for yourselves this day whom you will serve, whether the gods which your fathers served that were on the other side of the River, or the gods of the Amorites, in whose land you dwell. But as for me and my house, we will serve the Lord."

16 So the people answered and said: "Far be it from us that we should forsake the Lord to serve other gods;

Thank You

Words cannot fully express the appreciation I feel for what you have done for my family. From advice to teaching to sharing the Word of the Lord to your amazing tribute, I will never be able to do for you what you have done for us. I only hope we can embody what you have taught us.

Love and light of the Lord will guide us for the rest of our time on earth, and you have helped us on this path.

Tifani, Chase, Morgan, and especially Leon... He is smiling down on us all.

Thank You

Thanks to everyone for your cards and prayers. I am enjoying my nice new place to live.

What About Fathers?

Sonora Smart Dodd started a quest to honor fathers. She was one of six children raised by a single father. Sonora believed fathers should be honored the same as mothers. She petitioned in her home state, and the first ever Father's Day was celebrated on June 19, 1910, in Washington State. It took more than 60 years for Father's Day to become a national holiday. Richard Nixon signed into law for Father's Day to be a national holiday in 1972.

We honored mothers on Mother's Day at Charlotte Heights, and it is only fair to do the same for fathers. It doesn't take a national holiday for us to know the importance of fathers in the home. We can go back all the way into Genesis and see God's design for the home. "Therefore a man shall leave his father and mother and be joined to his wife, and they shall become one flesh." (Genesis 2:24). Jesus pointed back to God's plan for the home during His earthly ministry. The apostle Paul repeated the same in Ephesians with husbands loving your wives.

Every child needs a father and a mother. I know things happen where this is not always the case. However, it doesn't take away from the fact that the home needs a godly father and a godly mother. I know the world embraces and supports other plans for the home, but we don't serve and follow the world. I think about Joshua and the stance he made after the great conquest of Canaan. I believe his words still apply today in 2022. We need to consider this father's words when it comes to our homes - homes with a father and mother who love God.

In Him,
Josh Barnett

Response

Congratulations to Joyce Crawford, who met with Josh, Kory, & Andrew this week and rededicated her life to the Lord.

Please keep Joyce in your prayers.

Thank You

Dear Church Family,
Words cannot tell you how much those of you who came yesterday were a blessing to me. I did feel so very blessed by your presence. But what I enjoyed so much was – seeing you visiting and fellowshiping with each other, re-connecting after these past few years, Christians talking and enjoying seeing one another again. Thanks for all the cards & donations (and the stuffing). Thank you for taking time out of your day to celebrate with me at this time of my life. And a very, very special Thank You to those who worked in the preparation Friday night and all the hard work you did Saturday with the food and serving. I can NEVER say THANK YOU ENOUGH (as well as the clean-up, too). You helped me so very much to enjoy the party.

Thank you & Love to you ALL.
"May the Lord bless you and keep you..." (Numbers 6:24-26)

Intern's Insights

If you haven't met me yet, my name is Andrew Wilson. I'm a sophomore at Freed-Hardeman University. I am the summer intern at Charlotte Heights and will be working with Kory and Rachel as we try to bring the young people closer to God and closer to each other.

We had a great start to the summer with our Youth Group Kidnap. It's a great event to bring in and welcome the newest members of the Youth Group, but it's also a great way to say hello to summer. We had an awesome week of events last week. On Tuesday, we took a good group of people to Holiday World. It was an amazing time filled with laughter and fun. On Thursday, we took the Youth Group to DEFY Trampoline Park and then headed over to Heritage Church of Christ for the Summer Youth Series. It was a great time to connect with the kids, have fun with them, and worship God with them.

I am so excited to be here and working with Kory and Rachel with the Youth Group. This past week, we had the Kidspiration Kids come for a day at the park, and this Thursday we'll have the Youth Group do a service project and have a guest speaker do a devotional, which will be very uplifting for them.

God Bless,
Andrew Wilson
