TODAY'S LESSON

Hidden Messages For Mindful Listeners: Message About Justification
By Josh Barnett

Luke 18:9-14 (NKJV)

9 Also He spoke this parable to some who trusted in themselves that they were righteous, and despised others: 10 “Two men went up to the temple to pray, one a Pharisee and the other a tax collector. 11 The Pharisee stood and prayed thus with himself, ‘God, I thank You that I am not like other men—extortioners, unjust, adulterers, or even as this tax collector. 12 I fast twice a week; I give tithes of all that I possess.’ 13 And the tax collector, standing afar off, would not so much as raise his eyes to heaven, but beat his breast, saying, ‘God, be merciful to me a sinner!’ 14 I tell you, this man went down to his house justified rather than the other; for everyone who exalts himself will be humbled, and he who humbles himself will be exalted.”

Andrew will also be bringing us our sermon that Sunday morning.

Please make plans to attend!

Hidden Messages For Mindful Listeners: Message About Justification

Our final parable for this month is what Jesus said to those who trusted themselves that they were righteous and despised others. (Luke 18:9) It is a fine line between human achievement and divine accomplishment. It was a problem then and continues today with people who believe their good is good enough with God. A child can go through their life hearing “good job”, “you did it all by yourself”, and “you can accomplish anything you put your mind to”.

How does our good compare to a Holy, Just, and Perfect God?

Jesus' parable of the Pharisee and the Tax Collector is about justification. What does “justification” mean? One can be justified from sin by being exempted from the penalty. The Tax Collector went down to his house justified. How? He looked to God and not himself to be made right with God. Everyone who determines to establish righteousness on their own will fail. No one can justify before God alone. If this were the case, there would be no need for Jesus, forgiveness, and salvation.

Jesus Christ “was delivered up because of our offenses, and was raised because of our justification.” (Romans 4:25) Let us see what we need to see and hear what we need to hear on the matter of justification.

In Him,

Josh Barnett
