TODAY'S LESSON

The Body of Christ:
The Hands of Jesus

By Josh Barnett

Matthew 19:13-15 (NKJV)

13 Then little children were brought to Him that He might put His hands on them and pray, but the disciples rebuked them.
14 But Jesus said, "Let the little children come to Me, and do not forbid them; for of such is the kingdom of heaven."
15 And He laid His hands on them and departed from there.

Next Sunday

Ed Short's Chinese Ministry is one of the Mission points that Charlotte Heights supports. Ed will be joining us Next Sunday to speak at our Morning Service, Sunday School, and Evening Service.

All Adult Sunday School classes will stay in the auditorium next week.

The Body of Christ: The Hands of Jesus

What does it mean to be the hands, feet, and heart of Jesus? I've mentioned it before in lessons. "Now you are the body of Christ, and members individually." (1 Corinthians 12:27) Jesus is no longer in the flesh on earth, but His spiritual body is. We are to let our light shine so that people see our good works and glorify God in heaven. I want us to examine the physical body of Christ in Scripture this month, so we can better serve others as the spiritual body.

The most wonderful hands were the hands of Jesus. While no writer made any effort to describe them, we can understand the life of Jesus by the times when He used His precious hands. Jesus told Thomas, "Reach your finger here, and look at My hands." (John 20:27) Consider in Matthew's gospel the times Jesus used His hands for different reasons.

We are given a choice every day to use our hands to do good or not. We can work with our hands to earn a living for our family. We can use our hands to let people know that we care. We can put our hands together and go to the throne of God in prayer. What do your hands say? Would they say, "I love God and do the things I can do for Him?" Would they say, "How distracted we have been by not reading our Bible or praying to God?" We are the body of Christ. May our hands show that.

In Him,

Josh Barnett

Sympathy

Sympathy is extended to Mildred Stokes in the passing of her daughter, Shelia Demonbreun, last Sunday. Shelia was also the sister of Nancy Goad.

Services were conducted on Wednesday.

Please keep this family in your prayers.

Thank You
