Thank You, Ed Short!

Thank you, Ed Short! I cannot thank Ed Short enough for filling in for me both Sunday morning and Sunday evening. I have grown to love and respect Ed and his precious family. We ate at Cracker Barrel during my first year at Charlotte Heights and had the best conversation. He told me about his precious family and how they have served God both in the United States and abroad. Ed retired from World Christian Broadcasting at the end of 2018. He is fluent in Mandarin and has written many study books in the Mandarin language. I love to hear him speak the language.

Ed and Sharon are both tremendous people. God watched over them when they were in a terrible automobile wreck on May 26, 2021. Ed and Sharon suffered from fractured sternums along with other things.

They have endured and preserved through it all by the grace of God.

My family is away with my in-laws at the beach. They were gracious enough to invite us to join them. I cannot thank Ed Short enough for filling in for me. I know he will do a much better job than me. He is so wise and full of knowledge and experience. Thank you, Ed Short! God Bless.

In Him,
Josh Barnett
