Blessed Beginnings - Makarios Are The Merciful

Do you enjoy carrying extra weight around? Imagine people having a 50-pound weight when they go shopping, eat out, and go to worship service. How long could you carry the weight? We wouldn't last long if we had to take such a weight with us. We can carry weight, although it is not visible to see.

Grudge is one of those words that defines itself. Could you say the word slowly? It starts with a growl, like a bear awakening from hibernation. Being near a person with a grudge and trying to pet a growling dog are equally enjoyable. People with a grudge carry an unnecessary weight on their spiritual shoulders. They don't think about what Jesus has done for them. They only think about the person who is the source of their grudge.

Let's say that people who carry a grudge get even. Will that free a person holding a grudge? Does revenge or justice bring release from negative weight? I've never known of someone with revenge, bitterness, hatred, and resentment to be set free by their strong feelings. I have seen it with mercy. The purpose of mercy is not to inflict pain but to relieve it. We all need mercy. I don't care if you are the most important or least important person in the world. We all need mercy in this life and the next. If we need mercy, we must be willing to show mercy.

“Makarios are the merciful, for they shall obtain mercy.” (Matthew 5:7)

In Him,

Josh Barnett
