Blessed Beginnings - Makarios Are The Peacemakers

On a Wednesday morning, December 2, 1942, a group of scientists completed an experiment in Chicago. From a scientific point of view, they had completed a monumental achievement. From a historical point of view, they had turned a corner in the story of humanity. Out of their discovery came the atomic bomb. The first atomic bomb was dropped in 1945 on Hiroshima, Japan. One of the scientists who worked in Chicago in 1942 was Dr. Compton. He recalled the event later in his life. He said that he felt a sense of gratitude to God for another of God's great gifts but that he knew this was a gift that could put a Question Mark on humanity's future.

Humanity has been great at making bombs, making technology to use on others, making threats, and making war and destruction for personal gain. How are we doing at making peace? An Exclamation Mark on humanity was the life and words of Jesus Christ. He flipped humanity upside down by putting to death the religious status quo of the day and presenting a new way of life. He said, "Makarios are the peacemakers." (Matthew 5:9)

Most people want peace and enjoy living in peace. This is not what Jesus is saying. He tells us that blessings are in making peace. This is something different and greater. We all benefit from living in peace and prosperity. We all don't benefit from peacemaking.

Only the ones who are making peace with themselves and others receive the advantage from God. Humanity continues to put Question Marks on events and unintended consequences. God placed an Exclamation Mark on the life and teaching of Jesus Christ.

In Him,
Josh Barnett

Did You Miss the Super Bowl Last Sunday Night?

No, not that Super Bowl ... the Super Bowl of Sermons!

If ever there was a Super Bowl of Sermons, it would be the Sermon on the Mount. Jesus taught a multitude of people, and His sayings are recorded in Matthew 5-7.

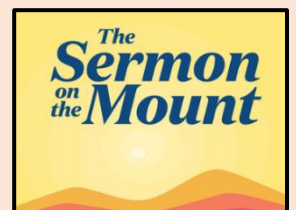

Josh quoted this entire sermon last week during the Sunday evening service.

Yes, he quoted 3 entire chapters of the Bible. Great Job!

If we asked him, he would tell us not to announce this great achievement in the Bulletin, so we didn't ask him.

It was just too impressive not to publish.

"Therefore, whoever hears these sayings of Mine, and does them, I will liken him to a wise man who built his house on the rock." --Matthew 7:24
