He Understands Doubts About The Afterlife

By Josh Barnett

Luke 23:39-43 (NKJV)

39 Then one of the criminals who were hanged blasphemed Him, saying, "If You are the Christ, save Yourself and us."

40 But the other, answering, rebuked him, saying, "Do you not even fear God, seeing you are under the same condemnation? 41 And we indeed justly, for we receive the due reward of our deeds; but this Man has done nothing wrong." 42 Then he said to Jesus, "Lord, remember me when You come into Your kingdom."

43 And Jesus said to him, "Assuredly, I say to you, today you will be with Me in Paradise."

He Understands - He Understands Doubts About The Afterlife

What happens after we die? What has happened to those who have passed away? Stephen Hawking was a brilliant physicist who did not believe in God and the afterlife. He said, "I regard the brain as a human computer that will stop working when its components fail. There is no heaven or afterlife for broken down computers; that is a fairy story for people afraid of the dark."

Many people have doubt about the afterlife.

One of the criminals sentenced to crucifixion with Jesus had a doubt. He said while dying, "If You are the Christ, save Yourself and us." (Luke 23:39). Don't you hear the same response today? If you are there, God, let me find a job or a spouse. If you are there, God, then save my dying family member. Help me, God! What happens when God doesn't do what we ask Him? Jesus didn't save Himself that day nor did He stop the death of the two criminals. The doubting thief didn't realize that if Jesus saved Himself, the world would remain lost.

Jesus understands the doubting and questioning in our hearts. He understands by hearing it and experiencing what people say of Him in this life. We have a High Priest who can sympathize with our weaknesses. We may struggle with Paradise and Heaven because we can't see or know everything about it. Jesus confirmed its existence when He spoke again while on the cross. What He said then has helped many who struggle with the afterlife.

In Him,
Josh Barnett
