TODAY'S LESSON

Anchors For The Soul

By Josh Barnett

Acts 27:29, 43-44 (NKJV)

29 Then, fearing lest we should run aground on the rocks, they dropped four anchors from the stern, and prayed for day to come.

43 But the centurion, wanting to save Paul, kept them from their purpose, and commanded that those who could swim should jump overboard first and get to land, 44 and the rest, some on boards and some on parts of the ship. And so it was that they all escaped safely to land.

Anchors For The Soul

Do you ever feel that your life has run aground? Are you stuck going nowhere? Life can easily wash up fear and anxiety. Someone reached out to me this week, saying, “I don’t know how people can make it without God.” Life is tough, but life is unbearable without God. The Scriptures are so powerful and encouraging. We read of many who faced tremendous adversity in this life but held on to God. Some were shipwrecked and run aground.

Paul and the two hundred and seventy-six passengers aboard a ship were unaware of what awaited them. There is nothing predictable about the open sea. The same can be said about life. Everything can go our way until something unexpected happens. Life can whip up some big problems. What do you do in these moments?

We can learn by dropping anchors like Paul and the crew aboard the doomed ship. The four anchors dropped from the stern can metaphorically be anchors for our souls. We need anchors to hold us in God’s word and to keep us grounded in His will.

We cannot make it through life without God. We need hope to anchor our souls. We need to drop the four anchors lest we run aground from this life.

In Him,
Josh Barnett
