TODAY'S LESSON

Lessons From The Loved Disciple:

Bread Of Life

By Josh Barnett

John 6:30-35 (NKJV)

30 Therefore they said to Him, "What sign will You perform then, that we may see it and believe You? What work will You do? 31 Our fathers ate the manna in the desert; as it is written, 'He gave them bread from heaven to eat.'" 32 Then Jesus said to them, "Most assuredly, I say to you, Moses did not give you the bread from heaven, but My Father gives you the true bread from heaven. 33 For the bread of God is He who comes down from heaven and gives life to the world." 34 Then they said to Him, "Lord, give us this bread always." 35 And Jesus said to them, "I am the bread of life. He who comes to Me shall never hunger, and he who believes in Me shall never thirst."

Lessons From The Loved Disciple: Bread Of Life

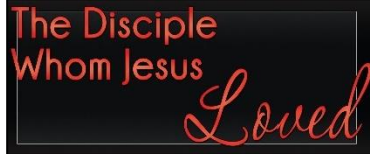

I remember talking with the family of William Schroeder when he was sick and after he passed away. They showed me old newspaper articles about his accomplishments as an athlete. They also told me about his job at Tasty Bread and Colonial Bread. William was a “Bread Man”. When he retired, he was still rearranging the bread aisle in a store where he was shopping.

Bread is such a staple. When the snowy weather threat is mentioned, people rush to buy “milk, eggs, and bread”. The staple of bread was important during Jesus’ time on earth. He was born in Bethlehem, and that name means “House of Bread”. Jesus feeding the multitudes is mentioned in all four gospel accounts. The only other miracle repeated in all four books is the resurrection.

We can relate to feeling hungry. It may not be the same level as those in a third-world country who don’t have anything. But we know the feeling of our stomachs growling and our thoughts being on food. Jesus fed the multitudes with five loaves and two small fish. He distinguishes between physical and spiritual hunger in His teaching afterward. He said, “I am the bread of life.” (John 6:35).

What does that mean to us when we have more than enough? Do we see past the benefits of God to the blessings of God? It’s not about bread in this life but the bread of life! He is the bread of life for hungry souls.

In Him,
Josh Barnett
