TODAY'S LESSON

What We Sing:
How Great Thou Art
By Josh Barnett

Colossians 3:16-17 (NKJV)

16 Let the word of Christ dwell in you richly in all wisdom, teaching and admonishing one another in psalms and hymns and spiritual songs, singing with grace in your hearts to the Lord. 17 And whatever you do in word or deed, do all in the name of the Lord Jesus, giving thanks to God the Father through Him.

Isaiah 45:18 (NKJV)

18 For thus says the Lord, Who created the heavens, Who is God, Who formed the earth and made it, Who has established it, Who did not create it in vain, Who formed it to be inhabited: "I am the Lord, and there is no other."

What We Sing – Introduction

We were blessed to host the Middle Tennessee Friday Night Singing last month. This has been an event for many years. It started over thirty years ago. We had several song leaders to lead songs that I knew and some that I didn't know. The songs I didn't know made me look closely at the words and melody of the song. I have to catch myself with songs I know by heart. I can easily sing them without paying much attention to what the words are saying. Do you find yourself doing the same?

Sometimes people complain about the singing. They don't like how the leader is leading or how it sounds. Let me remind you that our priority is how we sound to God. His concern is not with melody but with our words and heart. What are we saying to God in our songs? Do our hearts say that we don't like to sing to Him? Do our hearts say that we think singing is too boring? If we better understood the words we were singing, would it make a difference in what we sing to God?

“Let the message of Christ dwell among you richly as you teach and admonish one another with all wisdom through psalms, hymns, and songs from the Spirit, singing to God with gratitude in your hearts.”
(Colossians 3:16). We sing to God because we have much to sing about. What we say in our songs are powerful declarations of faith. We begin with the words to the hymn How Great Thou Art.

In Him,
Josh Barnett
