John 10:27-30 (NKJV)

What We Sing – Rock Of Ages

Do you find yourself going through the motions when it comes to our song service? You know the hymns well enough for your mind to focus on something else. We easily do this in other areas. We can listen to music in the background as we work. We have music playing in our cars while driving or talking. I can catch myself thinking about my sermon more than the songs we are singing. I believe it is a challenge for us to focus on a song that we have sung many times. However, the number of times shouldn't take away the message it teaches.

How can we grow tired or bored of God's love, His forgiveness, and His amazing grace? The purpose of this series is two-fold. It is to bring out the message of the songs we sing and to remind us of the importance of singing to God. We have the opportunity to use our hearts and voices to thank and praise God. Isn't He worthy of our time, attention, and voice every week? Please focus on the words that we sing. Don't forget to use your voice and heart to sing out to God. He is greater than your favorite music artist or group.

He is worthy of our praise.

One of the songs we sing is Rock of Ages. It is a hymn about the power of God's forgiveness.

"Rock of Ages cleft for me, Let me hide myself in Thee."

In Him,

Josh Barnett

Sympathy

Sympathy is extended to Randall Jones and his family in the death of his brother, Johnnie Jones.

Randall is a former minister of West Nashville Heights. Services were conducted last week in Bowling Green, KY.

Please keep this family in your prayers.

Directory Photos Update

There are almost 300 photos that must be edited & sized for both online use & personal use.

We are expecting the photos to be ready by the end of June. At that time, they will be loaded into our online Breeze system.

We will give an update at that time regarding the process of getting the personal photos to each family.

We are also discussing plans for a professionally printed directory.

Thanks again to Tracey Teichmann for making the photos & for her work in getting them ready.
