What We Sing – When the Roll Is Called Up Yonder

What if you got a glimpse of heaven? What if you could get a peek at what the Lord left to prepare for us? Would it change you? Would you be more connected to God than you are now? Would you labor for the Master from dawn till setting sun?

The third verse of When The Roll Is Called Up Yonder speaks of working for the Master and talking about His wondrous love and care. The writer of this hymn, James Black, was inspired by a disappointment. He called roll one day in a youth meeting in Williamsburg, Pennsylvania. One name didn't answer. James commented, "O God, when my name is called up yonder, may I be there to respond." He left the meeting and returned home to write down the words and music to this beloved hymn.

Our lives are building up to that moment when the roll is called. We are closer today than ever to hearing the Lord's trumpet and the dead in Christ rising in the glory of His resurrection. The Bible tells us about the coming of the Lord and the judgment for a reason. We need to be prepared and put into practice that we will be up yonder soon. The last line of each verse says, "And the roll is called up yonder I'll be there." What a bold statement! There is no room for doubt or uncertainty. Do we realize what we are singing to one another and to God?

Does my heart reflect my words when I sing, "I'll be there!"?

In Him,
Josh Barnett

New Heights Christian Community Services Summer Camp

New Heights Christian Community Services is planning to host its 7th annual overnight camping experience. New Heights Christian Camp will be held during the week of June 26-30 at Camp Sycamore Creek in Joelton, Tennessee. Involving children from each of the centers, they are planning for a lot of campers to participate this year!

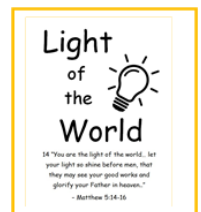

Many of the families served cannot afford to send their children to Bible camp, but New Heights believes that camp provides teachable moments and a lifetime of memories that every child should have the opportunity to experience.

It costs New Heights approximately $100 per child to run the camp.

If you would be willing to help support some of these children, you may give your donation to the church office. Envelopes are located on the table in the hallway.

The 2023 Camp Theme is Light of the World.
Will you help be a light to these children?
New Heights is grateful for your assistance.

Cow's Corner

This past Sunday we had the pleasure of worshipping at a former congregation we served at in Owensboro, KY. It was a pleasure to see old familiar faces and to meet new friends. It was also a blessing to be able to be involved in the Lord's church miles away from our home congregation. What a wonderful thing that we gather with Christians worldwide to worship our awesome God each and every Sunday.
