TODAY'S LESSON

A Colorful Life: Worker

By Josh Barnett

Genesis 39:3-7 (NKJV)

3 And his master saw that the Lord was with him and that the Lord made all he did to prosper in his hand. 4 So Joseph found favor in his sight, and served him. Then he made him overseer of his house, and all that he had he put under his authority. 5 So it was, from the time that he had made him overseer of his house and all that he had, that the Lord blessed the Egyptian's house for Joseph's sake; and the blessing of the Lord was on all that he had in the house and in the field. 6 Thus he left all that he had in Joseph's hand, and he did not know what he had except for the bread which he ate. Now Joseph was handsome in form and appearance. 7 And it came to pass after these things that his master's wife cast longing eyes on Joseph, and she said, "Lie with me."

A Colorful Life: Worker

The first couple of months in the ministry almost did me in. I graduated from Freed on a Saturday in May at 23. I was set to get married on the first of July, and I started the ministry full-time the following day. I had a few members to confide in me of sexual sins that had occurred earlier in life. One member described incest and betrayal of trust within a dysfunctional family. Another member told me of infidelity. This person was unfaithful, broke the covenant vows with someone else, and lived with that guilt for about ten years. I thought the walls in my mind were closing in. I was faced with hurt, sadness, and sin in a strong way, and I didn't feel prepared to help them. I quickly learned the problem of sexual sins and the damage it does to the soul.

Joseph knew the temptation of sexual immorality. He was young and single, and he was attacked daily with the temptation to be with the wife of Potiphar. Joseph was in Egypt and sold to Potiphar as a slave. He had to work in the house of his master Egyptian. God blessed Joseph so that he found favor with Potiphar. He also found favor with Potiphar's wife. She tried daily to get Joseph to be with her.

A Colorful Life

Joseph said, "No." Over time his "no" was not good enough with her. She caught him by his garment, but Joseph escaped the threat. Joseph, the worker, shows us that it's okay to say "no" and mean it by running away from the threat to our souls.

In Him,

Josh Barnett

Wanted: Ruthless Renegades of the Bible

Last week Dusty had to stand before the judge, but thanks to Ace's quick thinking, he got off scot-free! Ace knew the story of Pilate in the Bible, and it helped him convince the judge to let Dusty go.

This week Dusty thinks there is a traitor in their midst. Who is betraying Dusty? What friend may become an enemy? What does the story of Judas in the Bible have to do with all of this?

Join us this week to find out these answers and more!
Y'all come back now, ya hear!!

Cow's Corner

Or do you think that the Scripture says in vain, "The Spirit who dwells in us yearns jealously"? --James 4:5

How much value do you place on scripture? Do you take it for granted? This verse tells us two things. One is that we need to realize how important scripture is. And the second thing is that the Spirit is jealous. How amazing is it that the Spirit yearns for us and is jealous of us when we search for other things. This verse is clear. God is yearning for you. Will you go to Him, or will you keep running from Him?
