TODAY'S LESSON

A Colorful Life: Interpreter
By Josh Barnett

Genesis 41:1, 14-16 (NKJV)

1 Then it came to pass, at the end of two full years, that Pharaoh had a dream; and behold, he stood by the river.

14 Then Pharaoh sent and called Joseph, and they brought him quickly out of the dungeon; and he shaved, changed his clothing, and came to Pharaoh. 15 And Pharaoh said to Joseph, "I have had a dream, and there is no one who can interpret it. But I have heard it said of you that you can understand a dream, to interpret it."

16 So Joseph answered Pharaoh, saying, "It is not in me; God will give Pharaoh an answer of peace."

A Colorful Life: Interpreter

“Then it came to pass, at the end of two full years, that Pharaoh had a dream.”
(Genesis 41:1). How good are you at waiting? Is waiting on God a strength of yours? Abraham and Sarah waited twenty-five years for the birth of Isaac. Moses didn't lead God's people until he was eighty years young. Noah and his family waited for many years before it began to rain. Paul was hidden away for three years in Arabia. Joseph waited two more years before Pharaoh had a dream.

Joseph asked the chief butler to remember him when he left the dungeon. The chief butler forgot about Joseph. His forgetfulness cost Joseph two more years in the dungeon. When Joseph was brought out of the dungeon, they gave him a shave and changed his clothes. Can you imagine what he looked like and smelled like? God works everything for the good. What is two years to an infinite God? God used Joseph to interpret Pharaoh's dream.

God continues to work while His people wait. Joseph was being shaped for something significant for the future of God's people. Joseph's life is as colorful as A Colorful Life that multicolored tunic given to him by his father. He was a brother, worker, prisoner, and interpreter. We must not get discouraged by waiting. We are not the first to wait nor the last. God is in control, and He works at the best time.

In Him,

Josh Barnett

Cow's Corner

"Therefore be imitators of God as dear children. And walk in love, as Christ also has loved us and given Himself for us, an offering and a sacrifice to God for a sweet-smelling aroma."

(Ephesians 5:1-2) They say that imitation is the sincerest form of flattery. This week, let's all strive to be imitators of Christ, and as the passage tells us, serve as a sweet-smelling aroma in a pretty stinky world.
