TODAY'S LESSON

A Colorful Life: Leader

By Josh Barnett

Genesis 42:21-25 (NKJV)

21 Then they said to one another, "We are truly guilty concerning our brother, for we saw the anguish of his soul when he pleaded with us, and we would not hear; therefore this distress has come upon us."

22 And Reuben answered them, saying, "Did I not speak to you, saying, 'Do not sin against the boy'; and you would not listen? Therefore behold, his blood is now required of us." 23 But they did not know that Joseph understood them, for he spoke to them through an interpreter. 24 And he turned himself away from them and wept. Then he returned to them again, and talked with them. And he took Simeon from them and bound him before their eyes.

The Brothers Return to Canaan
25 Then Joseph gave a command to fill their sacks with grain, to restore every man's money to his sack, and to give them provisions for the journey. Thus he did for them.

A Colorful Life

A Colorful Life: Leader

What makes a good leader? Is it someone who reacts to every emotion? Is it someone who uses the power given as a personal tool? I'm afraid history has given us many poor examples of leaders. Today's leaders can also fall prey if they focus on power, not people.

Joseph was a good leader. Pharaoh appointed him to be governor of the land. He prepared the Egyptians for the famine crisis by storing grain in the storehouses during the seven good years. The Bible says that the famine was over the face of the earth, and it was severe. Egypt was prepared for the famine because of Joseph's leadership. The famine is essential to the story of Joseph because it brought his brothers out of Canaan and into the land of Egypt. Joseph's brothers were in his presence, not knowing it was him, wanting to buy some grain. Joseph recognized them and remembered his dream in Canaan.

Joseph could have allowed his emotions to override his intellect because of what they did to him. He could have handled the situation in a personal way by punishing them. Joseph, the leader, showed what makes a good leader in Genesis 42. We may not be in the same position as Joseph, but how we live our lives leads someone. Do they see us living selfishly, hungry for power?

Do we default to our emotions rather than reason?

Let us learn from Joseph, the leader, about good leadership.

In Him,

Josh Barnett

Crow's Corner

“Hypocrite! First remove the plank from your own eye, and then you will see clearly to remove the speck from your brother's eye.” -- Matthew 7:5

Hypocrite? Ouch, that one stings! It can be so easy to see the faults of others while ignoring our own. We need to make sure we look in the mirror before we go looking at others. We all have struggles and difficulties. If you see a speck in someone's eye or maybe a plank, pray for them and see what you can do to help. Now if you will excuse me, I have a plank to remove.

-- Kory Crow
